It is a thing most wonderful

from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

It is a thing most wonderful,
almost too wonderful to be,
that God's own Son should come from heaven,
and die to save a child like me.

And yet I know that it is true:
he chose a poor and humble lot,
and wept, and toiled, and mourned, and died,
for love of those who loved him not.

I cannot tell how he would love
a child so weak and full of sin;
his love must be most wonderful,
if he could die my love to win.

I sometimes think about the cross, and shut my eyes, and try to see the cruel nails and crown of thorns and Jesus crucified for me.

But even could I see him die,
I could but see a little part of that great love, which, like a fire,
is always burning in his heart.

It is most wonderful to know his love for me so free and sure;
but 'tis more wonderful to see my love for him so faint and poor.

And yet I want to love thee, Lord;
O light the flame within my heart,
and I will love thee more and more,
until I see thee as thou art.

Words: William Walsham How (1823–1897), 1872
Music: Herongate (English traditional, arranged Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1872–1958)
Meter: LM
